Table of Contents [ShowHide]Earth's outer space, also known as the universe, is a place that contains countless mysteries and attracts everyone's attention. This topic has been greatly exploited in movies, video games and has always received a lot of love from the community. So let me introduce you to a game also located in cosmic space. It's Space Shooter: Galaxy Attack.Space Shooter: Galaxy Attack is a product of Onesoft, the familiar opposite I mentioned in the past with Galaxy Attack: Alien Shooter. Both games have a space shooter simulation game. There, you'll know that aliens are real and they're trying to invade our world. A familiar subject in fiction, right? Guardians of the Galaxy on a clear day, the sky is green and clear, but who knows that behind the rusty white cloud is a fleet of alien monsters coming to invade Earth. They destroyed the squadrons sent by Nasa to stop them. Only you, earth's last hero, carry with you the mission to protect the galaxy from aliens. The fate of all living things on Earth is in your hands. Do you know what to do? Space Shooter Battles: Galaxy Attack takes you into a fierce battle in space. The place where only you're in a spaceship and confront the crowd of aggressive enemies. Without teammates, you... To drive the spacecraft yourself, aim the mtrut at the enemy to destroy them. But it's not just that, your enemies are the state-of-the-art spacecraft that don't easily take down and can attack you against. The task is gradually becoming more difficult than ever! Space Shooter: Galaxy Attack has the same game as the legendary chicken invaders game. From the beginning, you are equipped with a battleship to fight a swarm of enemies. But unlike the previous game, there is a very interesting power upgrade system according to the progress of the game. Upgrade the spacecraft and deal with the enemies. Enemies bosses and enemies easily defeated in the first stage, Space Shooter: Galaxy Attack gives you a system with many warships and aliens. It comes with dozens of new spacecraft with their diverse functions. In particular, bosses carry their own ultimate power with state-of-the-art weapons. As a chicken invader, in Space Shooter: Galaxy Attack, you have the mission to save the galaxy from the hands of the bad guys. On any other planet, in addition to admiring their mysterious beauty, you also face various dangerous enemies. With countless modern spaceships with lethal weapons, including cannons, fire meteors, laser bombs, ... They're willing to ruin everything. Especially with the bosses, the amount of bullets fired increases and causes very high damage. So, besides being taken away quickly, you should pay attention to dodging the bullets, lasers and missiles. As earth's only hope, you must not collapse when the fate of mankind is still in danger. A spaceship a large part of your power is based on the combat spacecraft. Compared to a normal normal spacecraft, Space Shooter: Galaxy Attack has a more modern spacecraft for you to deal with increasingly powerful enemies. In addition, you can also manually upgrade your spacecraft to more guns or nuclear missiles. The power of the spacecraft is whole and ready, just waiting for your battle and control to bring peace to the universe. Graphics one of the standout things about space shooter: galaxy attack, which is the graphics. With careful image quality, each of your tours is like a blockbuster movie with great lighting and special effects.
